Raider Basketball Season Begins Tuesday

The Raiders, under new Head Coach Jim Crawford, will take the floor at 8:00 PM Tuesday against Seminole District opponent Gretna signaling the opening of a new season of high school basketball.

Coach Crawford, who will be assisted by Coach Coty Dickerson, promises an exciting brand of basketball with offensive and defensive formations not previously used at Appomattox.

The Raiders are young, only three seniors on the team, but several have junior - varsity experience under Coach Crawford and are familiar with his program.

It is important that the Raiders stay healthy if they are to be competitive in the Seminole District. Serious injuries to one or more players could have a devastating effect on their seasonal performance.

Starting line-up for Appomattox will probably be the three seniors Larry Kelso, 6'4", 205; Terry Woods, 5'10", 175; and Steve Cobb, 6', 165, who are captains, along with Shane Abernathy, 6'6", 200, junior; and Marvin Johnson, 6'3", 180, also a junior.

Other juniors on the team include, Jonathan Pickett, 6', 165; John Simmons, 6'2", 145; Alonzo Dillard, 5'10", 130 and Mike Campbell, 6', 180. Kim Humbles, 5'7", 130, David Pankey, 6'3", 150 and Ron Carter, 6'1", 160 are sophomores.

Seven games are scheduled before the Christmas Holidays with five being played in the A.C.H.S. gym. Following the Gretna Hawkes, William Campbell's Generals will come to town on Friday night, Dec. 7. Support The Raiders and Raiderettes!!!!

MRS. J. B. BAILEY, JR.
the former Miss Janet Lee Ramsey

Wed in Afternoon Ceremony

The marriage of Janet Lee Ramsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Leslie Ramsey, Jr. of Madisonville to J. B. Bailey, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Benjamin Bailey, Sr. of Keysville, took place on Sunday, November 11, at four o'clock in the afternoon at Centenary United Methodist Church, Madisonville.

The Reverend Raymond Redford of Lynchburg, former pastor of the bridegroom, officiated at the double ring ceremony and was assisted by the Reverend Thomas Boggs, pastor of the church.

The vows were exchanged amidst a setting of lighted tapers, green ferns, and basket arrangements of pink and white gladioli, pompoms, and carnations. The Altar and candelabras were decorated with ivy.

Mrs. Jean B. Owen presented a program of traditional wedding music and accompanied Norm and Dennis Ramsey, brothers of the bride, who sang, "O Perfect Love" and "The Gift of Love."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore her mother's wedding gown. The gown was fashioned of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin. The bateau neckline of the lace bodice was finished with a scalloped-edged band of embroidered tulle. The full floorlength tulle skirt was trimmed with deep scrolls of lace. The bride wore a chapel length veil of matching Chantilly lace that fell from a Juliet cap. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid showered with pink daisies, lily of the valley, and baby's breath.

Miss Teresa Ramsey, sister of the bride, of Madisonville, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of floral polyester and carried a bouquet of pink daises, white pompoms and baby's breath. Mrs. Lee W. Thompson, of Richmond, was matron of honor.

The bridesmaids were Miss Martha Hunter, cousin of the bride, of Richmond; Miss Rita Campbell, of Prospect; Miss Susan O'Brien, of Palmyra, and Miss Susan Bernard, of Warrenton. They wore floor length gowns of fuchsia crepe and carried floral bouquets identical to that of the maid of honor.

Julian Benjamin Bailey, Sr. was his son's best man. Ushers were Norm and Dennis Ramsey, brothers of the bride, of Madisonville; Scott Carter, of Rocky Mount; Jim Poteat, of Greenville, N. C., and Lee Thompson, of Richmond.

The bride's mother wore a cream street-length dress of polyester piped in brown suede and a cream and pink-threated cymbidium corsage. The groom's mother wore a plum street-length dress of polyester with a suede jacket. She wore a white and pink-throated cymbidium corsage.

Mrs. Joan V. Ramsey and Mrs. Frances Anne Hunter, aunts of the bride, were mistresses of ceremonies.

Miss Cindy Jackson, cousin of the groom, presided over the guest book.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall.

Hostesses for the reception were Mrs. Fay Bagley, Mrs. Frances Anne Hunter, Mrs. Mildred Moore, Miss Pam Moore, Miss Rhonda Moore, Mrs. Margaret Garrison, Mrs. Julia Henserson, Mrs. Elna Hancock, Mrs. Brenda Jones, Mrs. Irene Shorter, Mrs. Nora Bugg, Mrs. Elmer Vaughan and Wiggie Walker.

After a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the couple will reside in Richmond.

Pre-Nuptial Entertainment

On Sunday, October 14, friends and relatives entertained the couple with a miscellaneous shower in the social hall of Centenary United Methodist Church.

Miss Ramsey was entertained with a lingerie shower on Saturday, October 27, in the home of Mrs. JoAnn White. Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Gina W. Thompson and Miss Rita Campbell.

On Sunday, November 4, Mrs. Julia Henderson, Mrs. Ruby Abbitt and Miss Dee Duffey, cousin of the groom, entertained the couple with a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Julia Henderson, of Keysville.

A bridesmaids' luncheon was given by Mrs. Frances Anne Hunter and Miss Martha Hunter on Saturday, November 10, in their home. The bride presented her attendants with gifts at that time.
